Vintage TV (#p118218)

by darren2722 » Mon Apr 15, 2013 7:12 am

Was flicking through the music channels last night, and came across this Channel called Vintage TV, which was showing a programme called Mick Gallagher - My Vintage it advertised Mick Gallagher's (Formerly Keyboard Player With Ian Dury & The Blockheads & The Clash) Musical influences and one of those was Dusty. Unfortunately I had missed the Dusty segment, but the good news is the episode is repeated this Wednesday 17th April at 11pm. 😊

Vintage TV In the UK is available on Virgin Media Channel 343, Sky Channel 369, and Freesat 515. Don't think there is a Catch -up Service available. 😞

Might be worth keeping a eye on Vintage TV they show a lot of old music clips and programmes (Hence the title)

Along with BBC4 this might be the best Channel to pick up any Dusty scraps. 🎵 🧐

yes Darren we have discussed this and there are some Dusty clips on there. shows her coming off the plane after the South Africa trip and then in another prog shows her singing YDHTSYLM on our fav RAH concert.

they run the same shows repeatedly and then also introduce some new ones here and there. when it first started I watched it a bit but sadly it hasn't really developed much since.

Thanks Liz.& Georgie. 🙌 Dusty was singing YDHTSYLM from the RAH in the programme. 😊 According to Mick Gallagher her Catalogue of songs was just amazing, she could do absolutely anything. She was His All time Favourite. Couldn't agree more. 🍏

While it was lovely to have two full length live clips of Dusty (SOAPM from Sullivan and YDHTSYLM from RAH), the panel lead by Janice Long was a bit of a wash out! I like Beth Orton and I'm sure in a better environment she would have had more to say on Dusty as she has often talked of her admiration of her. Other than Beth though, not sure anyone else had much of an idea, just bits they'd heard or read re-hashed (and not always accurately!).

Last Night on Vintage TV there was a programme on about 60's Girl singers I think it was called Girls From The 60'S Not 100% Sure. Anyway Dusty's In Private Video showed from 1989, I looked at their schedule but couldn't see any repeat forthcoming, 🙄 but will let you know when/if it comes. 🙄
