Mary, I wonder if you saw Dusty somewhere else in the teal pants and boots as I have a small pic that I'm told was taken on stage at the Greek and Dusty appears to be in the RAH outfit. The guy in the pic is Ed from NY who presented Dusty with flowers.

A couple of occasions when we saw Dusty on stage. The colour ones are at The Talk of the North club just outside Manchester. I loved that dress, it always looked as if she could hardly breath in it, never mind move, but she managed both. Cas was there too that night and remembers it most for the fact that they made her wear a dress!

First time I saw Dusty (1964) she wore orange. Next time later in 64 (she spent a whole week at the Guamont in Bouremouth)she wore a long tight green skirt and pink blouse.At the Pavilion in Bournemouth she wore the blue dress as featured on the Dutch TV show where she mimes to "i close mY eyes"At the Talk of the Town the fab dress she wears on Tom Jones show (she sings "I am woman " etc) white with pink roses. At Drury Lane several outfits including a fab white long tailored suit.looked like white satin.I also met her at the airport when she arrived for the concerts wering a fab pink sort of rain suit.RHA we all know (I was in row 3 folks!!!) Met her later at a DSI fans get together when she arrived in her blue leather jacket(as seen on some promo picks for Pet Shop Boys tracks)actually bought with money from fans for her birthday)and later in a lovely black top with white spots!

What an amazing memory Graham! Did you write it all down at the time? My friends and I did, unfortunately we no longer have those lists. Here's a shot of Dusty (with my friend Adrian), in the "lovely black top with white spots".

Hard, if not impossible to say Nancy but the one in the picture at the Talk of the North (above) and which she also wore for the Poll Concert (YDHTSYLM), is tough to beat. It was such a perfect slinky fit, very glam and in lovely colours of pink and darker pink! Lace at the top and velvet at the bottom. Another outfit that sticks in my mind was one she wore off stage in Liverpool. I only have a b/w shot of her wearing it but again it was in was a very vivid pink and I wanted it badly! It was a short skirt two piece suit and she wore in with maroon-ish coloured patent shoes, which you can't see on the pic but they were slip on, small heel and buckle on the front. I managed to find myself a pair very similar! 😊

That's one of my favorite Dusty pics of all time....did you take it Carole?

The lace/velvet number is also to die for; it suits her so well. It's the same as what's pictured here isn't it?

Yes it is the same dress in the pictures and yes, I did take the b/w photo. It was in the street behind the Liverpool Empire, we'd just had a chat inside the stage door and Dusty had suggested we come backstage after the show. We took a few minutes to think about that 😊 They were going in search of a cafe.
