this is a strange one, a press kit for a Dusty release called Walk On By. Anyone know anything about it?

turns out this is new Swedish released compilation CD. The tracklist isn't included yet in the link below and I can't read all the tracks in the ebay link above, but I am sure it has been titled in the belief that Dusty recorded Walk On By.

Most odd. I wonder why it was called 'Walk On By'?

I got it from Megastore in Sweden Humboldt. It has exactly the same tracklist as the 2006 Dusty compilation 'At Her Very Best'. (sadly no sign of a previously unknown recording of Walk On By!)

There are no other photos or sleevenotes in the booklet, just the song titles and composers.

Thanks Clive. I know that Dusty never even sang 'Walk On By' but I just thought that the tracks made a nice change. Of course I already have them all!

Indeed - and a shame to be sure. That song was made for her.

Funny that of all the hundreds of songs Dusty ever sang, they picked the one song she never sang! 🤔 Idiots.

Well after I bought this cd I started a rumour that they were going to release a similar set on Dionne Warwick and call it I Only Want To Be With You. 😊

Mark, the band is called A Camp, and is Nina Persson's side project when she's not with The Cardigans. Nina has also performed at one of the 'A night with Dusty' tribute concerts here in Sweden, it just occurs to me.

Here's a A Camp song, 'You're the storm' (not Dusty's song, though): http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=KxZ9_XIL19E

And here she is singing 'Windmills of your mind' at 'A night with Dusty': <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=fx5xUJq5840>
