Funny how your mind wanders when you are driving a familiar road-- on the way down to the Cape, listening to Dusty (of course) sing "All Cried Out" I had this idea for a thread.

How many lines from songs Dusty sang contain a variation of the word 'cry.' Add to the list (copy and paste), and add the title of the song if it's different from the line.

To make the game last a bit, each person can only add one line per day.

And yes, more than one line from the same song can be used.

1. I'm all cried out

x N

There's something in my soul that will always lead me back to you.
