Where Am I Going 1999 CD re-issue (#p145387)

by countrycake » Sat Feb 08, 2014 12:03 pm

Given that you can pay between £16.25 and £39.77 if you want to buy the Japanese import of WAIG (the UK issue has long since been deleted) from Amazon UK Marketplace, I was pleasantly surprised to see Fopp's in Glasgow selling the UK re-issue for only £6.00. In fact, they were selling all their Dusty CDs at that price. That's the good news. The bad news for anyone who wants this is that Fopp's website is pretty basic and has no facility for buying online.

The branch contact details are (for anyone who is searching for a copy at a reasonable price) are:

Fopp
19 Union Street
Glasgow
G1 3RB

0141 285 7190

They might do a sale over the 'phone.

Thanks for this info. Do you know if the Japan CD has superior sound quality to the UK CD, or are they sourced from the same masters? Perhaps it's just my ears, but I sensed a slight defect on "Bring Him Back" from my UK CD.

FOPP also have lots of Dusty in their other Glasgow branch in Byres Road, I was in there today. FOPP in Rose Street in Edinburgh also usually have lots of Dusty too. I'm not sure that they will take a sale via the phone but it's always worth a try 😊

Joe, I haven't heard the Japanese import, so I can't make a comparison. As for Bring him Back, there is what sounds like a bad tape join on the original master at 1:31. I am sure it was noticeable on the original LP issue. You would have thought that with today's technology, they could have got rid of it when re-mastering for CD.

John, I completely forgot about the Byres Road branch of Fopp when I made the original posting.

Pat is now aware that this is the best deal for 'Where Am I Going'. Only £4.47 incl p&p 😊
