Carole's House is not a home thread made me think, where did Dusty live at various points of her life, and when?

Well the Aubrey Road dates are on the blue plaque! 🤔

But this is a good question for Tom; he could probably tell you the actual dates she moved from one to another.

Mark, what if you were called on to move Dusty from one residence to another?!?!?

Well it's all right to go on and live your life, so come out into the light....

I thought the dates on the blue plaque were slightly wrong! 🤔

Tom, come forward! We need your expertise! 😊

Actually, it's not something I've a lot of knowledge of. The plaque was dated wrong (it originally said 1966 instead of 1968) and it got changed, I do know that but I just find it hard to place Dusty in certain places date wise. And as for when she went to the States, haven't a clue!

I was sent this photo, along with ones of other houses, a few years back. The person who took them said Dusty lived on this road. It's the only photo of the bunch that survived a computer crash and I think the house or road was called Dona Teresa.

Hi, Carole

The road is Dona Teresa Avenue. It's on the Studio City(San Fernando Valley) side of the Hollywood Hills just off Laurel Canyon Blvd. I lived about a mile from there at one time.

Lee

Then 1982 Beachwood Canyon down to Hollywood Continental Apts, for a year. I can hear a voice coming in. I have the receipts. Teda.

She moved to Beachwood upon return from Canada -- until May of 1983. Then, she lived with several friends, had a 2 1/2 month hospital stay, and lived with her AA sponsor for a few months in the last quarter of the year, starting in September.....all in recovery from the teeth incident.

To be very clear - Dusty was taken in by a few friends - which included a few of her ex's - after the teeth incident. The rest of 1983 was spent on her recovery. They were all sober. caring people.

She was well looked after.

Any pictures of the Amsterdam house Dusty lived in at all please?

I believe Dusty lived there before her permanent move back to England, as her Cat's had to be quarantined, any info on Dusty's time there would be greatly appreciated!

I remember Hotels. She stayed in Amsterdam a short time. I know exactly where she lived in the states. Peggy will always back me up. Carol G. knows on her side of the world. People who know nothing should not speak up. Trying to build their nothing ego. Mark Carol knows about that side. The cats always were treated the best. She was wonderfull at the Wildlife Way Station. You had to see her. Please do not believe people who try to make them selfs better then what they are. Trust Simon and myself. Teda

I'm in absolutely no position of authority here, but this is my point of view.

A few people on this site obviously have history together. Take it somewhere else. The rules of the site clearly stipulate that.

Please obey them, for everyones sake and for the sake of Lets Talk Dusty. Its only been going for a while and I think its great! I dont want anything to take away from that.

So basically I think - take your personal stuff elsewhere. This is about where Dusty lived, not Teda.

Please dont take offence from this...Im trying to mediate and STAY ON TOPIC 🌍 (haha hypocrite to the MAX!)

Love,

Mads xxx

Another post that started in all innocence is in danger of being subverted by ancient history.

Please remember the rules - they are here for the good of the rest of the membership who I am sure do not want to be subjected to this sniping.

We run an inclusive site - differing opinions are fine, but personal innuendo and abuse will not be tolerated by anyone. Believe me if you break them often enough your membership WILL be revoked.

I echo all that Tim and Mads say. This is a FAN forum and as such is meant to be fun. Those personal posts are not fun and are of no interest to the main body of people on here, in fact they're offensive to read and as such, wont be accepted. This is not the place for it, please take it elsewhere.

My thoughts are the same. Personal attacks are tiresome, irrelevant and unacceptable.

Can I just stop the discussion right there for a minute.

I guess the problem with this topic is that it's suddenly centred on the messiest part of Dusty's life. It's now involving people on here and is thus bound to stir up controversy.

I know that was probably a simple enquiry Mads but I suggest we all let it lie now. This topic started in all innocence as to discussing where Dusty lived, not who she lived WITH - a line of enquiry which is bound to stir up trouble.
