this series which we all know because we bought the dvd 😊 and as discussed on here before, the series is on sky arts channel and its Dusty on Sunday at 8pm. 🤔 it is then repeated into the following week and monday 6pm is the one I can see at this stage on the forward planner. 😊

It doesn't matter that I've watched it loads of times, I like to see Dusty on the telly 📺 Thanks for the heads up Liz, be good for Dusty to reach a wider audience than the one that buys her dvd's.

well Carole spurred me on and even though its on Sunday I ended up playing it last night as the tv was devoid of any progs I was interested in. it was so good to see it and of course I sang and danced along with her 😊

I just love her dancing and bopping about. I also loved the NME awards with her and Dougie and Madeline etc. all so happy and full of life. 🥰
