Unfortunately this company does not supply footage to collectors or fans but it looks like they have some interesting Dusty footage from American TV.

Sorry I can't make these bigger.

Paul Ryan Show

Bobby Darin Show

I had a look on the site Clive, and yes you can't really go far with it can you? Pity the stills can't be made much bigger, as Dusty looks wonderful in them.

Its a real shame when footage like this is being kept from the people who would really appreciate seeing it.

Is there any way to get it?
Like what is the purpose of having it there if they wont let anybody see it?

Is it for TV shows only or something?

LOVE MADS.

Thanks for posting Clive! 🤔👍

It is too bad they cant be made bigger...Dusty sure does look great in the pics...the Bobby Darin show one would look great as a background for your desktop screen.....wonder what song she was singing..

that's right Mads they licence the clips to TV production companies for documentaries etc.

I would particularly like to see the interview on the Paul Ryan show, I never heard about it before. I think the photo looks like around 1981.

I never heard of that before either Clive but I'll make an effort to find out! So much on that site that I would love to see and I'm not just talking Dusty. We do have a little footage from that Andy Williams Show on the R&R Hall of Fame awards show but I too would love the Bobby Darin Shows. The pic could be Magnificent Sanctuary Band, the background looks too jolly for the slower songs she sang. I found this other pic looking through.

This is a bit bigger, but it does lose something in the enlarging obviously. If this is any better and anyone wants the others enlarged just say.

Good work, Clive in locating this!

Well done, Wendy, yes and more, more.

Just look at those green eyes and all that fabulous hair. Who cares if it wasn't all hers?! She wore it well.

No, the first one was a better picture, and I was able to enhance it a bit with my limited ability, but the second one, really you can only do so much with, and I think the smaller one is best left at that.

Could you do the b/w one, please? I believe it would lose at lot less in enlargement...

Hi Frans - I am working on that one at the moment Frans, but at present it is coming out very pixilated - I think that's the word - so I'm trying to improve things before I put it on. I think it will probably be tomorrow morning now.

Yeah I don't think that last black and white one is any worse than the original, it's just a bit bigger so we can see it better.

This one's not very clear I'm afraid, it's not too clear in the original, being that it's not a portrait. If you stand back from the screen a bit, it comes into focus more.
