news coming out of Cardiff today.

an album from Dusty Springfield has been discovered in a Cardiff attic. it is dedicated to an unknown fan called Liz. if anyone has any ideas who she is or how this album came about and yet was never released please get in touch.

the title of the album is "Dusty in Wales"
the tracks on it are as follows.

- 1 I think its going to rain today
 - 2 All I see is Ewe.
 - 3 Where is a Taffy to go
 - 4 I had a talk with my Mam last night
 - 5 Son of a Preachers Mam.
 - 6 The Windturbines of your mind
 - 7 No easy way down (ode to Snowdon)
 - 8 In the Privvy (Welsh outside toilet)
 - 9 We'll keep a welcome (adapted from I'm coming home again)
 - 10 The Corrupt ones (ode to Welsh Assembly)
 - 11 Summer is over
 - 12 I only want to be with Ewe.
- bonus tracks
- 13 In the middle of nowhere.(ode to Welsh heritage coast)
 - 14 Mammy said.
 - 15 Angels,look you.
 - 16 Beautiful Sole (ode to local chippie)
 - 17 Ta Ra then (adapted from ,if you go away)

this album is beautifully presented and is still shrink wrapped ,it is intended that the person this album is meant for will be presented with it if we can discover who and where she is 😊

Oh, Liz.

I had a moment of heart-thumping excitement and anticipation as I clicked on the thread title, followed by several minutes of loud and raucous laughter. Brilliant, inspired, hilarious post. Loved it. 🤔🤔🤔

Ha ha! Love it, Liz! (I too got a thrill of excitement from the title, but this was almost as good.)

Liz, I've just whizzed round Sainsbury's thinking, 'The Windturbines of Your Mind' and giggling to myself. 🤔

I love 'Angels, look you' as well. There's a very funny line in one of Bill Bryson's early books about how every episode of the famous Welsh soap Pobol Y Cwm consists of lots and lots of Welsh that no English person can understand, with something like 'dirty weekend, look you' thrown in every so often. 🤔

Have you thrown the gauntlet down, Liz? Do you want us to think of more?! Hmm... 😊 well yes very perceptive of you Rosie that is exactly what i am hoping for. I love all the phrases and sayings in Wales, and so thats why I included those from me. two favourite questions you may hear in Wales

"whose coat is that jacket?" and
"where had you been when I saw you coming back? "
I hope you enjoyed the tongue in cheek humour. I was bored today because of the endless rain. 😞😞

Hey Liz. 😊 You just have to sit in front of a computer and/or go to lots of meetings. It's fun and I'm close to Buckingham Palace. You'll love it! 😊 Actually, you'd be better off creating another of your lovely witty Dusty lists for us and playing your Dusty records while you're at it. And I hope you get a sunny day tomorrow. 😊

Oh well I can do that no problem. I could even go and have a dubonnet with Liz and Phil in my lunch break. I would only be on LTD or UTube at the desk so I suppose that would be ok?? I suppose then they would hardly notice you werent there Memphis ?? 🤔🤔🤔

No they wouldn't miss me especially as we both look the same! LOL! OK it's a deal, Liz. You start on Monday. I'll send you my security pass on Friday so you get it by Saturday. And I'll book you in with the other Liz for high tea but I'll tell her to skip the Darjeeling and get some Dubonnet out for you instead. I've heard she has a mint collection of most of Dusty's records but she's looking for a very decent copy of ECUD with the booklet still attached. 😊
